Family Support and Short Breaks

FAMILY SUPPORT

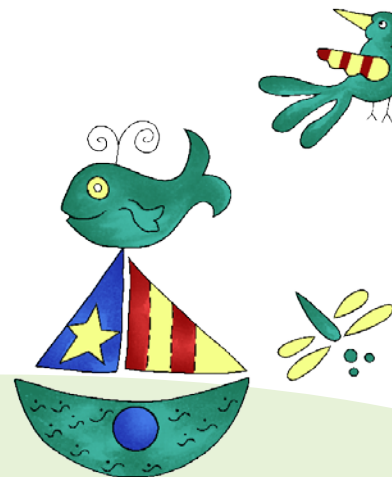

Appletree aims to offer a provision that will sufficiently meet the needs of all age groups and areas of individual need. Through working together with families and lead professionals to develop plans in order to combat areas of difficulty by creating support strategies and then implementing them.

SHORT BREAKS

We aim to comply with the Government strategy “Aiming High for Disabled Children: Better support for parents” by offering an accessible short break service that can be tailored made to meet individual requirement.

A short break is a period of time that may vary in length the aim being to provide disabled children with enjoyable and valuable experiences away from their parents and carers, thus giving parents and carers a well earned chance to take a break from caring.

EXAMPLES OF SUPPORT

- Community participation and activities
- Behavioural needs
- Social opportunities
- Family integration
- Household activities
